

Holiday Art Show Scheduled

A 10-day art festival is being planned by the South Bay Art Association to benefit the group's scholarship fund. The show, which opens Friday, will run through Dec. 15. The exhibit will be staged at the association's headquarters, 159 S. Harbor Drive, Redondo Beach.

The gallery will be open from 1 to 9 p.m. weekdays and from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday through Sunday. Original art works by area artists, including ceramics, sculpture, and crafts, will be displayed.

The association maintains a scholarship fund which provides a graduating senior from a local high school with an annual scholarship to an art school.

New Hours Slated for City Parks

Torrance parks will be operating on a new schedule during the winter months.

All parks except Walteria, McMaster, and El Nido will be open Monday through Friday from 3:30 to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Walteria and McMaster Parks will be supervised from 3:30 to 9 p.m. on weekdays and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. El Nido Park will be supervised on Saturdays only from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Indoor facilities are available for recreational activities on rainy days at El Retiro, Walteria, and McMaster Parks. All other parks without indoor facilities will be closed.

Field trips, crafts, and games are among the activities that are planned and conducted by recreation personnel at all Torrance parks.

Food Services Conference Set

John Blandy, food services supervisor for the Torrance Unified School District, is attending the second annual school administrators seminar in Vail, Colo., this week.

Future trends in institutional feeding will be discussed at the seminar.
